Get Ready for the Holidays

Crystal Tyson, Editor

Holiday gift shopping can be a hassle. Let Family and MWR help you with your gifting needs! Instead of getting simple gift cards, treat your loved ones and friends to some of our Family and MWR Facilities.

The Fort Gordon Dinner Theatre has tickets available for its upcoming holiday production, Greetings – and so much more. Each year Dinner Theatre presents several productions to entertain the entire Fort Gordon Community. From young to old, comedy to drama, music to art, Dinner Theatre is here for you!

Hilltop Riding Stable rides all year. Get riding lessons for the ones you love or take a romantic ride on a beautiful path. Either way, you can't go wrong with procuring advanced rides or lessons. Be quick, they fill up fast!

Strike out your bowlers heart by purchasing games at Gordon Lanes Bowling Center. You can even add gloves and a ball. Need instruction on bowling for kids? Call them now!

For the outdoor lover, be sure to stop by the Outdoor Recreation Office located near Range 14. Not only can you book cool trips with Get Outdoors Gordon, you can also rent shooting equipment and schedule archery lessons. There's so much more!

The Pro Shop at Gordon Lakes Golf Club has great apparel and items to get you geared up for golf. Our PGA certified instructors offer great prices on lessons as well.

The Easiest Do-It-Yourself Turkey

I am not a cook and I loathe holiday cooking, but I've found the easiest recipe for a turkey that is tasty and super simple. I had to be sure to share it with everyone! Enjoy!

- 1 (10-12 pound) whole turkey (cleaned)
 - 2 tbsp (tablespoons) seasoning salt
 - 2 tbsp dried minced onion
 - 2 tbsp dried parsley
 - 3 tbsp chicken bouillon
 - 4 cups warm water
 - 6 tbsp butter
1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C). Rinse and wash turkey. Discard the giblets or you can add these to pan if these are anyone's favorites.
 2. Place turkey in a Dutch oven or roasting pan. Separate the skin over the breast to make little pockets. Put 3 tablespoons of the butter on both sides between the skin and breast meat. This makes for very juicy breast meat.
 3. Combine the water with the bouillon, and sprinkle in the parsley flakes and minced onion. Pour over the top of the turkey. Sprinkle seasoning salt over the turkey.
 4. Cover with foil and bake in preheated oven for 4 to 5 hours. For the last 45 minutes or so, remove the foil so the turkey will brown nicely.

Okay, so I know this may not be easy for all – but if all else fails, visit Gordon Conference & Catering on November 26th for a great meal!

military history & tradition

A Brief Account

In honor of the men and women who have fought or are fighting for our country, and especially those who have died for our freedom, culture.mil briefs encompass all branches of service, as well as the military in general and aspects of the United States that touch the military in a significant way.

From military creeds to our national anthem, culture.mil is a tribute to our military and its unique culture. It is an insight into our military's past, who our military is today and who and what they will become.

A new story will be available every other Monday and we would love to hear from you. If you have a particular military history, culture or tradition brief you would like to see added to this collection, please make your request at fortgordon.com/what-is-culture-mil.

Jenifer Chrisman, Staff Writer

“Hooah” is not just a word; it is an esprit de corps and holds significant meaning to those in the military who use it. “Hooah’s” counterparts, “Hooyah” (Navy Special Forces) and “Oorah” (Marines) share a sense of motivation, unity, mission preparedness and confidence in success. Meanwhile, neither the Navy as a whole nor the Air Force appears to have a service call that represents them, although the Navy does use “Aye Aye.”

Varying sources agree there is no definitive genesis for these calls, although there is quite a bit of speculation. “Hooyah” and “Oorah” are most commonly thought to derive from hoorah, while “Hooah” appears to have far more numerous possible sources. From Mongolian’s war cry “Hurree” to the British infantry’s “Huzzah,” from the acronym HUA to General Cota mishearing “Who, us?” as “Hooah” in response to his “Lead the way, Rangers” on D-Day, “Hooah” has a variety of possible sources from which to claim its derivation.

Although there are no set definitions, spellings or origins for “Hooah,” “Hooyah” and “Oorah,” they are a well-defined and significant part of military culture, their meaning well understood by the military who share their use.

Service Calls and Acronyms

Aye Aye is used by the Navy to indicate an order has been received, is understood and, with the intent to act, will be carried out immediately.

Hooah /'hu:ɑ:/ referring to or meaning “anything and everything except no”. Used by the U.S. Army.

Hooyah is the battle cry of the Naval Special programs such as SEAL, SWCC, Diver, SAR and EOD programs. It may be used in cadence, whispered or shouted.

HUA is an acronym for “Heard, Understood, Acknowledged.”

HUAW is an acronym for “Hurry Up And Wait.”

Oorah, or Hoorah, is used as an expression of enthusiasm, battle cry or to respond to a verbal greeting by the U.S. Marines.

REVIEW - School-Age Services

ZAC CAMP

The SAC program participated in the ZAC camp. The ZAC camp is a Boys and Girls Club sponsored event that focuses on water safety. Our camp was from 23-26 June. During this four day camp the SAC children learned about the A,B,C & D's of water safety. "A" stands for adult: it is always important to have an adult around when in or near water. "B" stands for barriers: children should pay attention to fences and gates around swimming areas. "C" stands for classes: all children should take swim classes before they ever try to swim. "D" stands for drains: avoid drains in pools at all costs because they can create a suction. It was successful and the kids had fun.

WHAT'S HAPPENING? - Fort Gordon Dinner Theatre

"GREETINGS" BY TOM DUDZICK

November 13, 14, 20, 21, December 3, 4 & 5

Tom Dudzick's play smacks of the warm, old fashioned appeal of a Frank Capra film, but it's all of that and much more. It's an antidote, not only for pre-holiday anxiety, but for the apathy of modern life and the deadness that settles in when we become so adjusted to looking at things in a certain way that we no longer see them at all. Die hard pessimists will find the advice it offers simplistic. But of course the question is: if it's so simple, why is it so difficult?

WHAT'S HAPPENING? - Pointes West Army Resort

CAMP WITH US THIS FALL

There are many perks to camping during the fall. The crowds leave, the temperature starts to drop and the fall foliage makes a stunning setting bursting in color creating beautiful scenic lake views. We have three camping options for your enjoyment: primitive, semi-electric, and/or full hook up camp sites. So, pack your bags and choose one of our amazing lake front camping spots for your fall camping trip. For reservations, please call 706-541-1057, 10am-6pm daily.

WHAT'S HAPPENING? - Fitness Centers

WARRIOR CORE TRAINING

Warrior Core Training classes are every Thursday evening from 5-6pm. The program is designed to target and strengthen the abdominal muscles by performing several different exercises such as crunches and sit ups.

"NO EXCUSE" FITNESS

The Fitness Centers are here to help with all your fitness needs. Starting October 1st, in addition to our free classes offered in our facilities, we will continue free Crossfit classes as well as bring you 45 Days to a Fit Holiday. Our programs are here to ensure that you are able to have a "NO EXCUSE" Monday-Friday! For more information on all the free programs, visit www.fortgordon.com.

DYK?

Warrior Fitness Center conducts fitness testing to evaluate your fitness level. You will be led through a series of events to test your strength, flexibility, power, and endurance.

¹Unlimited Talk & Text: For phones only. Includes unlimited domestic calls & messaging. Unlimited International Messaging: Includes unlimited messaging from the U.S., Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands to more than 190 countries for text messages and 120 countries for picture & video messages. Messaging capabilities vary by country. AT&T may change countries at its discretion. Visit att.com/text2world for details. Messaging: Messaging applies only to AT&T's Short Messaging Service (SMS) and Multimedia Messaging Service (MMS) and not to any other messaging services or applications. Messages are for direct communication between phones and must originate from your phone. Messages sent to tablets, laptops, or other connected devices are excluded. Messages sent through applications may incur data charges. Service may be terminated or restricted for tethered messaging or misuse.

²Available with AT&T Next (where available) or when you purchase your smartphone at full retail price. Also eligible if you are out of contract or if you bring your own device.

³AT&T Locker: Requires compatible device (Android[™] smartphones with OS 2.2+, Android tablets 8" + with[™] 4.0+, iPads[™] and iPhones[™] running iOS 6.0+, smartphones with Windows Phone[™] 8 OS, or a computer with Internet).

Service for US-based AT&T subscribers only. Wireless usage may incur data charges. Free storage amounts subject to change or may be discontinued at any time. For full terms, see att.com/wirelesslegal.

Coverage and service not available everywhere.

Available to consumers and Individual Responsibility Users (IRUs). For full terms and conditions of service applicable to consumers and IRUs, please see a sales representative, or visit att.com/wirelessterms. All prices are billed monthly and are valid for use in the U.S. An activation fee will be charged when converting from a prepaid or session-based plan to a Mobile Share Value Plan or when you activate an additional device on an existing Mobile Share Value Plan. Prices are subject to change. Prices do not include taxes. Other

Monthly Charges: In addition to the monthly cost of the rate plan and any selected features, AT&T also imposes the following other charges, on a per line basis: (1) federal and state universal service charges, (2) a Regulatory Cost Recovery Charge of up to $1.25 to help defray its cost incurred in complying with obligations and charges imposed by state and federal telecom regulations, (3) an Administrative Fee on consumer and IRU lines, and (4) other government assessments. These fees are not taxes or government-required charges. Early Termination Fee (ETF): None if cancelled in the first 14 days; thereafter, up to $325 (details at att.com/equipmentETF). ETF applies to equipment purchased with a service commitment. Mobile Share Value Plans: Up to ten devices per plan. Additional monthly charge per device. Tethering and Mobile Hotspot use are permitted with up to five (5) simultaneous devices. Data: If you exceed the amount of data in your plan during your billing period, an additional 300MB, 500MB or 1GB is automatically provided as specified in your rate plan. All data allowances, including overages, must be used in the billing period in which the allowance is provided, or they will be forfeited.

15% Monthly Discount: Service discounts are available to qualified government employees providing proof of current government employment (valid government employee ID card or paystub) and to qualified veterans providing either a Department of Defense Form DD214 indicating an honorable discharge or a valid retired military ID. Eligible individuals must take personal liability for their account. Eligibility for offer ceases when you are no longer qualified. Discounts apply only to the monthly service charge of qualified plans. Discounts are not available with any unlimited voice plans. For Family Talk plans, discount will only apply to the primary line. For Mobile Share (including Mobile Share Value) plans, discount applies only to the monthly service charge for the data allotment of eligible plans with 1GB or higher, not to the additional monthly device charge(s). Additional plan and other restrictions apply. Discounts may not be combined. Offer subject to change. If you have a question about available discounts and/or your eligibility, contact us at www.att.com/gov/mvsn.
