100 YEARS: History, Tradition & Pride

Crystal Tyson, Editor

History: On April 6, 1917, the United States of America marked the 100th anniversary of joining World War I's Allied Powers (comprised of 25 nations; predominantly Great Britain, France, Italy and Russia). Territories and boundaries were the major issues leading toward the war, as they [territory and boundaries] continued to cause many more wars in US history. However, the assassination of Archduke Ferdinand of Austria in June of 1914 ultimately caused the Central Powers (Austria-Hungary, Germany, Ottoman Empire and Bulgaria) to declare war one month later.

Many Americans, as well as the President, were against entering the war, in hopes to remain neutral. While there are different beliefs as to why the US decided to enter the war, the constant damage, sinking and attacks of unarmed American vessels, between February of 1915 and March of 1917, may have been "the straw(s) that broke the camel's back." Finally on April 2, 1917, President Woodrow Wilson requested Congress approve his declaration of war against Germany. Just four days later, Americans were a part of what is also known as the Great War.

Tradition: Traditionally, wars have been fought by land, sea and air; however, with the military leaning heavily on cyber becoming the future of war prevention, the tactics of war have been rewritten. According to History.com, over 8 million lives were lost in WWI. This new tactic of cyber warfare should decrease the amount of lives lost. The missions of Cyber Command are to direct and conduct integrated electronic warfare, information

- Allies
- Central Powers
- Neutral Countries

and cyberspace operations as authorized, or directed, to ensure freedom of action in and through cyberspace and the information environment, and to deny the same to our adversaries. Fort Gordon has become the "Home of Cyber". Service members of all branches are attending schools in this area to learn all that our military has to offer on cyber tactics.

Pride: I am proud to be a part of a family with a long history of military service members. The pride of being an American and serving our country has been passed down for generations. Not only does the US have one of the largest militaries in the world, but our record is among the greatest. The US has been a part of many wars. Of those, 12 have been major, involving several different countries, with others being fought on our "own soil".

There has yet to be a time where the US has been on the losing side of a war. Here's to hoping there never will be!

The FYI Magazine has numerous contributors that have written great articles on times during WWI from different aspects. Be sure to visit www.fortgordon.com/fyi for this complete article, as well as the above mentioned.

War Gardens: Supporting WWI

Kathleen Duncan, Recreation Specialist

1916 will be remembered as a year of world-wide crop failures. Over 30,000,000 WWI soldiers were farmers before being drafted into the armed forces. The loss of farmers caused devastation and desertion across US croplands. To make matters worse, the war caused an influx of submarines which interfered with international shipping.

In March 1917, prior to the US entering the war, Charles Lathrop Pack came up with the idea of War Gardens. Pack believed the gardens would increase the food supply without causing an increase in the "use of land already cultivated, labor already engaged in agricultural work, time devoted to other necessary occupations, and of transportation facilities which were already inadequate to the demands made upon them..."

War Gardens, also known as Victory Gardens or Food Gardens for Defense, were primarily vegetable, fruit, and herb gardens planted at private residences and public parks in the United States, United Kingdom, Canada, Australia and Germany during World War I and World War II. The Gardens were used, along with Rationing Stamps and Cards, to reduce pressure on the public food supply. Besides indirectly aiding the war effort, these gardens were also considered a civil morale booster. Gardeners felt empowered by their contribution of labor and were ultimately rewarded by the produce grown in their gardens. This led to Victory Gardens being a part of daily life on the home front!

For today's farmers, we have the Fort Gordon Community Garden which is located at 44th Street and Brainard Avenue. The garden gives soldiers, families and civilians the opportunity to grow their own fresh vegetables, which supplements food costs and acts as an outdoor morale booster.

For more information on the Fort Gordon Garden, call 706-791-9483.

FORT GORDON DISC GOLF

Jerry "Swami" Swain Jr., Disc Golf Course Manager

After being open for only one year, the Fort Gordon Disc Golf Course has had thousands of rounds played on the Army/Air Force course. Since its opening, it has received rave reviews from the local disc golf community. The newly completed Marine/Navy course, an Advanced to Pro skill level course, has added two additional holes, making the much anticipated course a 20 hole disc golf course.

The Fort Gordon Disc Golf Course has drawn a lot of interest throughout the community. So much so, the Professional Disc Golf Association (PDGA) recently announced the 2017 PDGA Professional Disc Golf World Championships will be held at Fort Gordon on the newly-installed Marine/Navy portion of the Fort Gordon Disc Golf Courses, and on the W.R. Jackson course at the International Disc Golf Center, located in Wildwood Park in Appling. The tournament is sanctioned PDGA.

PDGA Events Manager, Mike Downes stated, "The PDGA is thrilled to showcase the community at Fort Gordon and the Marine/Navy portion of the Fort Gordon disc golf course during this event. To say we are lucky to be working with some outstanding volunteers is a huge understatement. The Fort Gordon Disc Golf Club, as well as the Augusta Disc Golf Association, have consistently embodied the principles employed by the PDGA and we are excited and confident in their ability to host an outstanding Major event."

Tournament Director, Zach Shafer, stated "Augusta is a great place to visit and recreate. We have an ever-budding disc golf scene here and we are thrilled to host this premier PDGA event. Myself, along with the rest of the PDGA Staff, the Fort Gordon Disc Golf Club, and the Augusta Disc Golf Association, are confident that we will put together an unforgettable experience for our players and spectators."

The tournament will be held from June 21-24, 2017. Spectators are welcome, free of charge. For additional information, contact Tournament Director Zach Shafer at 706-261-6342 ext. 107 or www.pdga.com/2017proworlds. For information about joining the Fort Gordon Disc Golf Club or questions pertaining to equipment, clinics and future tournaments on Fort Gordon, contact Jerry "Swami" Swain Jr. (info on next page).

PRE-K LOTTERY

Do not miss the Fort Gordon Pre-K Lottery on May 9th from 8:30am-4pm at the School Age Center. This is open for all children turning 4 years of age by September 1, 2017. You must bring an original birth certificate, proof of GA residency (phone bills or driver licenses are NOT valid), social security card of child and military ID/DoD ID. For more information, call 706-791-1306.

NEW CYSITTERS TRAINING

Is your child looking to make a little money this summer? Register your child for this training in First Aid/CPR and techniques to become a great sitter. All teens, 13-18 years, must be registered with CYS and attend all five days of CYSitter Training. Training takes place at the Teen Center on April 3-7 from 11am-5pm. You must register by March 24th. To register or for more information, contact Connie Preston at 706-791-1305 or connie.r.preston.naf@mail.mil.

NEW CHARACTER COUNTS

School Age Center has introduced the Character Counts Program. Children earn a character buck for displaying good citizenship and overall good character at the program. Children turn in their character bucks to Mr. Corey, and on the 1st Friday of each month, SAC opens the Character Counts store where children are allowed to spend their bucks.

WHAT'S HAPPENING? - Child & Youth Services

APRIL IS MONTH OF THE MILITARY CHILD

From deployments to new schools, military children are faced with unique challenges that ordinary youth their age never experience. Their ability to adapt to present and future changes deserves our respect and admiration. In an effort to recognize the hard work – and applaud – the courage of military children, the Department of Defense (DOD) has deemed April as the Month of the Military Child (MOMC). It is a time to honor military youth for the important role they play in contributing to the strength of the Army Family. MOMC also reaffirms the Army’s commitment to ensuring excellence in schools, childcare and youth services as well as, providing a strong supportive environment where children can thrive.

CRIMES OF THE HEART

May 5, 6, 12, 13, 18, 19 & 20

A production by Beth Henley. The scene is Hazlehurst, Mississippi, where the three Magrath sisters have gathered to await news of the family patriarch, their grandfather, who is living out his last hours in the local hospital. Lenny, the oldest sister, is unmarried at thirty and facing diminishing marital prospects; Meg, the middle sister, who quickly outgrew Hazlehurst, is back after a failed singing career on the West Coast; while Babe, the youngest, is out on bail after having shot her husband in the stomach. Their troubles, grave and yet, somehow, hilarious, are highlighted by their priggish cousin, Chick, and by the awkward young lawyer who tries to keep Babe out of jail while helpless not to fall in love with her.
