FAMILY & MWR SERVICES

Family and MWR services range from child development and after school programs to deployment assistance, relocation aid and career services. Also offered are financial management, family counseling and support networks for single service members, families, retirees and civilians. Leisure services include sports programs, fitness centers, parks and recreational facilities, restaurants, a library, clubs, concerts, community events, travel services and an auto skills center.

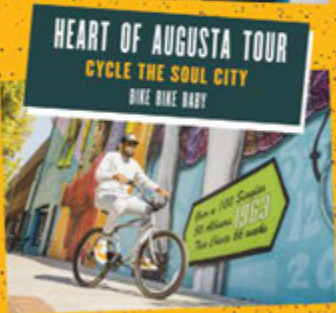

FAMILY & MWR MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to serve the needs, interests and responsibilities of each individual in the Army community with support and leisure services designed to enhance the quality of their lives for as long as they are associated with the Army, no matter where they are. We pledge to meet the needs of our customers: Active, Reserve and Guard service members, civilian employees, retirees, all respective members of their families and other eligible participants.

ARMY COMMUNITY SERVICE
ACS
Real-Life Solutions for Successful Army Living

Bldg. 35200, 271 Heritage Park Ln. 706-791-3579

All Army Community Service (ACS) programs support service members, civilian employees and families in maintaining readiness by coordinating and delivering comprehensive, responsive services that promote self-reliance, resiliency and stability. Each program maximizes technology and resources, adapts to unique installation requirements, eliminates duplication in service delivery and measures service effectiveness. Standardized ACS programs, services and facilities are based upon established Common Levels of Support. Get the information you need from a trusted source.

Army Emergency Relief (AER)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/programs/aer

AER is the U.S. Army's nonprofit organization dedicated to providing emergency financial assistance to service members and their families. Active duty service members, retirees and families are eligible to apply for an interest-free loan. Service members (Enlisted or Officer) have direct access to AER assistance by calling for an appointment and completing the Application Packet. Scholarships for dependent children and spouses of active duty, retired or deceased soldiers are available.

Army Family Action Plan (AFAP)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/afap

Through AFAP, you can raise issues, give feedback and help enhance standards of living for service members and their families.

Army Family Team Building (AFTB)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/aftb

This training program takes you step by step through Army culture and connects you to the skills and resources to become a self-reliant member of the military community. AFTB empowers you through self-development and leadership skills, basic Army knowledge and specialized training, to maximize your personal and professional potential.

Army Volunteer Corps (AVC)eisenhower.armymwr.com/avc

Unite with other volunteers, enhance your career mobility and help sustain Army service members and their families. AVC is designed to help you find local volunteer opportunities with organizations that benefit the Army community. We embrace existing volunteer programs, unite all volunteers who support service members and families, including the Active Force, National Guard and Army Reserve and formalize the Army's commitment to volunteerism.

Domestic Abuse Victim Advocate*eisenhower.armymwr.com/family-advocacy/domestic-abuse*

Domestic Abuse Victim Advocates are trained professionals who are available 24/7/365 days a year, to provide crisis intervention, safety planning and support to victims and survivors of domestic abuse.

Employment Readiness Program (ERP)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/erp

This program provides information and referral services for employment, education, training, transition and volunteerism. Available to military spouses, service members, retirees, civilians and their family members, ERP helps you acquire skills, networks and resources to jump-start your work life through career coaching, classes, job fairs, job listings and more.

Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/efmp

EFMP coordinates with military and civilian agencies for community support, housing, educational, medical and personnel services to provide comprehensive support for family members with special needs. An Exceptional Family Member is a family member with any physical, emotional, developmental, or intellectual disorder that requires special treatment, therapy, education, training, or counseling and meets the eligibility criteria.

Family Advocacy Program (FAP)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/fap

Domestic abuse, child abuse and neglect have no place in Army families. FAP can help prevent these family stressors by strengthening families and enhancing resiliency prevention and advocacy programs that include Domestic Abuse Victim Advocates and the New Parent Support Program home visitors.

Financial Readiness Program

eisenhower.armymwr.com/financial-readiness

Financial Readiness provides financial literacy training at personal and professional training points throughout the career of service members. Learn about debt, investing, consumer advocacy and protection, money management, credit, financial planning, insurance, Thrift Savings, Blended Retirement, home and car buying and other consumer issues.

Mobilization, Deployment & Support Stability Operations

eisenhower.armymwr.com/mobdep

Mobilization, Deployment and SSO provides training and publications to help commanders, soldiers and families navigate the challenges of mobilization and deployment. MDSSO offers resources for rear detachment cadres and soldier and Family Readiness Group (SFRG) leaders.

New Parent Support Program (NPSP)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/npsp

New Parent Support Program (NPSP) offers a wide range of informative, fun and supportive programs for parents. The mission of NPSP is to prevent child abuse and neglect by providing programming that helps build strong, healthy, connected and stable military families. NPSP is not just for “new” parents. The core services are available for expectant parents and parents with young children ages 0 to 3 years. Programs can be used by members of any branch of service, regardless of their military status.

Relocation Readiness

eisenhower.armymwr.com/relocation

Relocation Readiness provides assistance with counseling, sponsorship, pre-arrival information, temporary loan of basic household items through the Lending Closet and many other services. Relocation Readiness is a one-stop shop for anyone moving to Fort Eisenhower, or leaving for the next duty station.

Survivor Outreach Services (SOS)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/sos

Survivor Outreach Services demonstrates the Army’s commitment to families of the fallen by providing support and standardized services to Active, Reserve and Army National Guard families. We honor and serve those who have lost loved ones while on active duty, including those who died in combat or of combat related injuries, accident, illness or suicide. SOS provides services to you for as long as you want them.

Know?

UNITED STATES ARMY
CHILD & YOUTH SERVICES

Bldg. 44401, 44th St. 706-791-4455

CYS

Child & Youth Services is a network of systems and programs through which Fort Eisenhower provides quality child and youth development options. These programs reduce the conflict between parental responsibilities and unit mission requirements, support readiness and contribute to the quality of family life.

Before/After School

eisenhower.armymwr.com/before-after-school

Before and after school programming is available for kindergarteners and 1st-5th graders before and/or after the school day. Transportation to and from selected public schools off-post is based on the availability of transportation. Children who attend Freedom Park will walk to and from school/care by a CYS staff member(s).

Child Development Center (CDC)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/main-cdc

eisenhower.armymwr.com/east-cdc

eisenhower.armymwr.com/west-cdc

Child Development Centers (CDCs) offer full-day, part-day and hourly care for children in nationally accredited on-post environments. Full day, developmental programs are offered for infants, pre-toddlers, toddlers and preschool children ages 6 weeks to 5 years of age. The program also offers hourly care by reservation, on a space available basis, for children ages 6 weeks to 5 years.

Family Child Care (FCC)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/fcc

The Family Child Care program is an integral part of the Child and Youth Services child care system available on Army garrisons. FCC provides quality home-based care for children 4 weeks to 12 years old and is offered in government owned and government leased housing located on post.

Middle School & Teen Center (MST)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/mst

Developmentally appropriate opportunities are offered for children and youth, 13-18, in middle and high school. The program helps to develop individual, skill building techniques for team sports, competitions, clinics, nutrition and health classes that foster life-long healthy habits.

Parent & Outreach Services (POS)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/parent-outreach-services

Offers services such as registration, enrollment, records transfer, parent education classes, babysitter training and referral services for families with children up to 18 who have not graduated high school yet.

Division

A young boy with a joyful expression is shown from the chest up, wearing a green t-shirt. He is holding a blue recycling bin filled with clear plastic bottles. The background is softly blurred, showing what appears to be a recycling center or a similar facility. The entire image has a blue color overlay.

Bldg. 28320, Lane Ave. 706-791-2012

Support Services Division provides operational support to MWR events, facilities and programs in the following areas; computer support, marketing and advertising, facility and ground maintenance, recycling and financial management.

Home Based Business (HBB)

eisenhower.armymwr.com/home-based-business

This program allow families to work from their Army quarters, developing rewarding careers such as car repair/service, hairstylist, home baking and meal preparation, pet grooming and sitting, massage therapy and retail sales businesses that follow them through PCS moves and contribute to Army family quality of life.

Marketing & Advertising

eisenhower.armymwr.com

The Marketing Office is responsible for advertising all MWR events, facilities and programs through digital and print platforms and is the direct link to community business partners for advertising and sponsorship opportunities.

Recycling Center

eisenhower.armymwr.com/recycling

Recycling's mission is to divert material from the landfill by recycling as much as possible. The center and drop off locations, at 10th St. & Chamberlain Avenue and Wainright Circle, accept household recycling items from on and off-post residents including cardboard, white paper, ink toner cartridges, shredded paper (long cut), aluminum and tin cans, scrap metal and copper. Items marked CUI are not recyclable.

Unit Funds

Unit Funds or dividends are intended for off-duty recreational purposes and are at the discretion of the installation. Functions, where unit funds are used, must be open for participation to all unit members, and all purchases using unit funds must be for the mutual benefit of all. Funds available are based on unit strength and are reevaluated annually.
