Building 35200
271 Heritage Park Lane
(Unless otherwise noted)
706-791-3579

All Army Community Service (ACS) programs support service members, civilian employees and families in maintaining readiness by coordinating and delivering comprehensive, responsive services that promote self-reliance, resiliency and stability. Each program maximizes technology and resources, adapts to unique installation requirements, eliminates duplication in service delivery and measures service effectiveness. Standardized ACS programs, services and facilities are based upon established Common Levels of Support. Get the information you need from a trusted source.

Army Emergency Relief (AER)

gordon.armymwr.com/programs/aerz

AER is the U.S. Army's nonprofit organization dedicated to providing emergency financial assistance to service members and their families. Active duty service members, retirees and their families are eligible to apply for an interest-free loan. Service members (Enlisted or Officer) have direct access to AER assistance by calling for an appointment and completing the AER Application Packet. AER also provides scholarships for dependent children and spouses of active duty, retired and deceased Army soldiers.

Army Family Action Plan (AFAP)

706-791-3579

gordon.armymwr.com/afap

Through AFAP, you can raise issues, give feedback and help enhance standards of living for service members and their families.

Army Family Team Building (AFTB)

706-791-3880/3579

gordon.armymwr.com/aftb

Whether you're new to the Army or want to brush up on skills, get a leg up with AFTB. This training program takes you step by step through Army culture and connects you to the skills and resources to become a self-reliant member of the military community. AFTB empowers you, through self-development and leadership skills, basic Army knowledge and specialized training, to maximize your personal and professional potential.

Army Volunteer Corps (AVC)

gordon.armymwr.com/avc

The Army community runs on volunteers – and the AVC supports them. Unite with other volunteers, enhance your career mobility and help sustain Army service members and their families by connecting with AVC. Army Volunteer Corps (AVC) is designed to help you find local volunteering opportunities with organizations that benefit the Army community. The AVC has redefined volunteering within the Army. We embrace existing volunteer programs, unite all volunteers who support service members and families, including the Active Force, National Guard and Army Reserve and formalize the Army's commitment to volunteerism.

ERP

Employment Readiness Program (ERP)

706-791-1922/4181/3579

gordon.armymwr.com/erp

The Fort Gordon Employment Readiness Program provides information and referral services in the areas of employment, education, training, transition and volunteer opportunities. If you're looking for the next step in your career, check out ERP. Available to service members, retirees, civilians and their family members, ERP helps you acquire skills, networks and resources to jump-start your work life. Expect career coaching, classes, job fairs, job listings and more.

Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP)

706-791-1918/9707

gordon.armymwr.com/efmp

EFMP coordinates with military and civilian agencies for community support, housing, educational, medical and personnel services to provide comprehensive support for family members with special needs. An Exceptional Family Member is a family member with any physical, emotional, developmental, or intellectual disorder that requires special treatment, therapy, education, training, or counseling and meets the eligibility criteria.

Family Advocacy Program (FAP)

706-791-3695/5891/6967

gordon.armymwr.com/fap

Domestic violence, child abuse and neglect have no place in Army families. FAP prevents them by strengthening families and enhancing resiliency prevention and advocacy programs that include Domestic Abuse Victim Advocates and the New Parent Support Program.

Domestic Abuse Victim Advocate

706-791-STOP (7867)

gordon.armymwr.com/family-advocacy/domestic-abuse

Domestic Abuse Victim Advocates are trained professionals who are available 24/7, 365 days a year, to provide crisis intervention, safety planning and support to victims and survivors of domestic violence.

New Parent Support Program (NPSP)

706-791-3695/5891

gordon.armymwr.com/npssp

New Parent Support Program (NPSP) offers a wide range of informative, fun and supportive programs for parents. The mission of NPSP is to prevent child abuse and neglect by providing programming that helps build strong, healthy, connected and stable military families. NPSP is not just for “new” parents – the core services are available for expectant parents and parents with young children ages 0 to 3 years. Programs can be used by members of any branch of service, regardless of their military status.

Financial Readiness Program

gordon.armymwr.com/financial-readiness

Financial Readiness provides financial literacy training at personal and professional training points throughout the career of service members. Learn about debt, investing, consumer advocacy and protection, money management, credit, financial planning, insurance, Thrift Savings, Blended Retirement, home and car buying and other consumer issues.

MDSSO

Mobilization, Deployment & Support Stability Operations

706-791-3880/3579

gordon.armymwr.com/mobdep

Mobilization, Deployment and SSO provides training and publications to help commanders, soldiers and families navigate the challenges of mobilization and deployment. MDSSO offers resources for rear detachment cadres and soldier and Family Readiness Group (SFRG) leaders.

RR

Relocation Readiness

706-791-1922/4181

Darling Hall, Room 172

gordon.armymwr.com/relocation

Relocation Readiness provides assistance with counseling, sponsorship, pre-arrival information, temporary loan of basic household items and many other services. Relocation Readiness is the one-stop for anyone moving to Fort Gordon, or leaving for the next duty station.

Survivor Outreach Services (SOS)

gordon.armymwr.com/sos

Survivor Outreach Services demonstrates the Army's commitment to families of the fallen by providing support and standardized services to Active, Reserve and Army National Guard families. We honor and serve those who have lost loved ones while on active duty, including those who died in combat or of combat related injuries, accident, illness or suicide. SOS provides services to you for as long as you want them.
